3.2 Delivery dates or time periods as per the Contract are estimates only; time is not of essence, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in the Contract.

3.3 Seller may deliver the Product in separate lots at any date or time period on or before the expiry of the date or time period of delivery specified in the Contract. Further details of delivery schedule, if any, can be clarified by the parties.

3.4 Except as otherwise provided for in the governing law as per Article 18, Seller shall not be liable for any direct, indirect and/or consequential damages and losses caused by any delay in delivery.

3.5 Any delay, by the Seller, in delivery of Product shall not relieve Buyer from its obligation to take delivery of the Product.

3.6 The quantity of Product shall be measured by Seller's platform truck scale duly accredited by the competent Hungarian body. Buyer is entitled to check such measurement in the presence of the representatives of Seller and the forwarder by using any duly accredited platform truck scale.

Should any (negative or positive) deviation from the relevant lot value as per such check measurement not exceed 0.8% thereof or 200 kg, which is higher, the delivery shall qualify as fully compliant with the Contract (standard deviation), and such deviation shall have no impact on the price of the relevant delivery. VAT guarantee before further deliveries. As per the date of these General Conditions, the rate of VAT amounts to 27% of the price of the relevant Product.

- 3.9 Should the Buyer fail to take the delivery of Product or the relevant lot thereof, as the case may be, in accordance with the Contract,
- (a) Seller shall be entitled to arrange storage of such Product on behalf of the Buyer, whereupon the Product shall be deemed to have been delivered as per the Contract; and

Taxes are payable by the Buyer.

5 PAYMENT TERMS

- 5.1 Unless expressly stated otherwise in the Contract, payment of the prices agreed for the Product as per the Contract must be made prior to the delivery under the relevant Contract (prepayment) within five (5) working days of the receipt, by Buyer, of Seller's invoice into the bank account stated in the invoice, and all banking costs shall be borne by the Buyer.
- 5.2 Payment shall qualify as made on the day invoice amount is credited to the bank account stated in the invoice.

All costs incurred by Seller in collecting any overdue invoices in or out of litigation or arbitration (including without limitation fees and costs of attorneys and experts, court duties and other litigation or arbitration costs) are payable by Buyer. Every payment made by Buyer shall serve first as payment towards such collection costs, second as any interest owed by Buyer, and then to satisfy the most senior debt owed by Buyer, regardless of any payment instruction by Buyer to the contrary; and
 - (b) Seller shall be entitled, to its sole choice, refrain from delivery up to the receipt of payment plus the time period required for arranging the delivery and/or act in accordance with Article 3.9.

5.5 Complaints about an invoice shall be submitted to Seller in writing within eight (8) days of the invoice date. After that term, the invoice is considered as approved by Buyer.

The amounts as per this Article 6 may be set off.

7 TRANSFER OF RISK

The risk of the Product shall pass to the Buyer in accordance with the agreed term of INCOTERMS, or upon deemed delivery as per Article 3.9, as the case may be.

8 RETENTION OF TITLE

Should the parties agree on payment upon the delivery of Product, title to the Product delivered shall not pass to Buyer until Seller has received full payment of all amounts owed by Buyer to Seller for the relevant delivery. Buyer shall keep the Product separate from similar goods delivered by other suppliers in a clearly identifiable manner up to the transfer of title, and take out adequate insurance for the Product.

Goods of the kind delivered by Seller to Buyer found at Buyer's premises are presumed to be Seller's property as long as Buyer fails to meet all of its outstanding payment obligations to Seller.

9 RECEIPT OF DELIVERY. INSPECTION OF PRODUCT AT RECEIPT OF DELIVERY

9.1.1 Buyer (or the carrier as per FCA, as the case may be) shall inspect the quality of the Product and satisfy itself that the Product delivered meet the relevant Specification before transporting, storing, using or selling the Product (collectively: the "Use"). Use of the Product without prior inspection shall be deemed to be the unconditional acceptance of the Product.

9.1.2 Buyer shall not be entitled to reject the receipt and acceptance of the delivery (or the defective portion thereof, as the case may be), unless the Product, due to any material defect, is unfit for agricultural use.

9.2 If, on inspection of the quality of the Product, Buyer finds any deviation (defect), Buyer shall so notify Seller in writing (e-mail, original by registered letter), duly demonstrating the same (analysis findings of accredited samples etc.) and retaining the sample or samples used in the analysis. Seller will be entitled to arrange for an independent third party to analyse these samples. Costs of taking the samples and performing the analysis are payable by the party that is proven wrong.

- 9.4 If and to the extent the Product fails to meet any warranted property described in the relevant Specification according to the analysis as per Article 9.2 (powderness, recrystallization etc.), Seller may within a reasonable time, to its choice, remedy the defect by
- (a) duly decreasing the contract price; or
 - (b) replacing the defective Product (or the defective portion of the delivery, as the case may be) at the place of the delivery at no charge to Buyer.
- 9.5 After receiving a notice, Seller is entitled to suspend further deliveries until the cause of the defect has been established or the defect has been totally cured.
- 9.6 Should Buyer's complaint be unjustified, Buyer shall compensate Seller's costs arising out of the management of such complaint.

10 LIMITED WARRANTY

- 10.1 Seller solely warrants that the Product shall conform to the properties described and warranted in the relevant Specification at the time of delivery as per Article 3. Any and all additional warranties, express or implied, including as to quality, merchantability or fitness for any purpose are excluded, and Seller does not warrant that the Product conforms to any law, regulation, code and standard, unless expressly stated in the Contract.

The Product is suitable solely for Use in accordance with Seller's product information.

Buyer shall be deemed to have satisfied itself as to all such matters prior to ordering the Product.

- 10.2 Any samples supplied by Seller to Buyer prior to Contract signature are solely for information purpose and in no way imply any express or implied conditions or warranties of any kind, including as to quality, description, merchantability or suitability or fitness for any purpose, and Buyer shall be deemed to have satisfied itself as to such matters prior to ordering the Product.
- 10.3 In case Buyer identifies any defect of the Product which was not apparent or could not have been apparent at the receipt of delivery, Buyer shall notify the Seller within eight (8) days thereof, but in no event later than twelve (12) months of the date of delivery, and Articles 9.2 through 9.4 shall apply accordingly. Buyer shall make a clear statement whether Product has been handled and stored in strict compliance with the relevant instructions of the Seller.

10.4 The warranty and remedies set forth in this Article 10 are exclusive and in lieu of any other express or implied warranties or remedies and are conditional upon Buyer's handling and storage of the Product being in strict compliance with the relevant instructions of the Seller.

10.5 Any data in Seller's catalogues, specification sheets and other descriptive publications distributed or published by Seller in any manner may be varied from time to time.

11 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 Except as otherwise provided for the mandatory rules of applicable laws as per Article 18, and notwithstanding Seller's obligations as per Articles 9.4 and 10.3, Seller shall under no circumstances be liable towards Buyer or any third party (legal entity or private individual) for any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special damages and losses.

Buyer accepts liability for any damage resulting from the Use of the Product. Buyer shall indemnify and keep Seller harmless from and against all damage and costs arising from or connected to any Use of the Product and/or the use, by the Buyer or any third party, of information communicated or provided to Buyer by or on behalf of Seller.

11.2 Seller's liability shall under no circumstances exceed the amount of price received for the defective Product.

12 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

12.1 Seller has not verified the possible existence of third party intellectual property rights which might be infringed as a consequence of the sale and/or delivery of the Product, and Seller shall not be liable for any loss or damages in this respect.

12.2 The sale and/or delivery of the Product shall not convey any licence under any intellectual property right relating to the composition and/or Use of the Product, and Buyer expressly assumes all risks of any intellectual property infringement by reason of its importation and/or Use of the Product.

13.1 Seller shall not be liable in any manner for any damage, costs and/or expenses arising from or connected with any delay in, restriction on or interference with the performance of, or any other failure to perform, any of its obligations to Buyer caused by circumstances beyond Seller's reasonable control (the "Force Majeure"), including but not limited to natural disasters, earthquakes, floods, fire, explosions, war, terrorism, riots, collapse of relevant financial market, economic crisis, sabotage, accidents, epidemics, strike actions, lockouts, work-to-rule actions, labour unrest, problems in sourcing the necessary staff or raw materials, lack of transport means, traffic jam, failure of factory or essential machinery, emergency repairs or maintenance, disruption or lack of public amenities, late delivery of or defects in Product and/or services delivered by Seller's suppliers or subcontractors, laws and regulations, administrative orders, decrees, legislative measures, government action or other administrative measures, lack of permit, orders of court, arbitration panel or body of public administration.

13.2 If a Force Majeure event occurs, Seller must notify Buyer thereof with no undue delay in writing or at www.genezispartner.com, stating the cause of the Force Majeure and explaining how it may affect the performance of its obligations arising from Order Confirmation.

13.3 In the event of a delay caused by Force Majeure event, Seller's obligation to deliver will be postponed for a period equal to the loss of time caused by the Force Majeure event.

Should Force Majeure event continue or is expected to continue for more than two (2) months after the agreed delivery date, Seller will be entitled to cancel the Contract or the relevant part thereof without incurring any liability to Buyer.

13.4 If a Force Majeure event occurs, Seller shall not be required to purchase any Product with the aim to resell them to its customers, but Seller shall consider the distribution of available quantities of Product among its customers.
